

education

ROUNDABOUTTHEATRECOMPANY

Name: _____

Date: _____

How does your environment affect your life choices?

Now that you have thought about how environment affects your life, start thinking about how the environment of The Glass Menagerie affects the lives of the characters in the play.

Fill out the following information about each of the four characters in The Glass Menagerie

1.) Amanda: What was the last thing the play told you about Amanda?

What will she do next?

Where will she go?

When will the next scene involving Amanda take place? (Example: 20 years later, 4 hours later, etc)

Create a to-do list of adjustments Amanda will need to make for all of these changes in her life.

2.) Laura: What was the last thing the play told you about Laura?

What will she do next?

Where will she go?

When will the next scene involving Laura take place? (Example: 20 years later, 4 hours later, etc)

Create a to-do list of adjustments Laura will need to make for all of these changes in her life.

3.) Tom: What was the last thing the play told you about Tom?

What will he do next?

Where will he go?

When will the next scene involving Tom take place? (Example: 20 years later, 4 hours later, etc)

Create a to-do list of adjustments Tom will need to make for all of these changes in his life.?

4.) Jim/Gentleman Caller: What was the last thing the play told you about Jim?

What will he do next?

Where will he go?

When will the next scene involving Jim take place? (Example: 20 years later, 4 hours later, etc)

Create a to-do list of adjustments Jim will need to make for all of these changes in his life.

5.) Share your plan for one character with the class, and discuss the similarities or differences.